ADVENTURES

Chichen Itza

Chichen Itza is one of the New 7 Wonders of the World.

Chichen Itza is a complex of Mayan ruins centrally located on the northern half of Mexico's Yucatan Peninsula. In ancient, pre-Colombian times, Chichen Itza was a vibrant city with a diverse population of Mayan people extending well into the tens of thousands. Today, the site is home to the remnants of many ancient Mayan structures, including the famed El Castillo pyramid that dominates the site's center.

Chichen Itza is home to a number of architectural and natural wonders, including El Castillo, the Great Ball Court, the Temple of the Warriors, the Sacred Cenote, and more.

Ready to see Chichen Itza with your own eyes?

Cenote Ik Kil

Cenote Ik-Kil is one of Mexico's most breathtaking natural wonders, situated close to the famous Mayan ruins of Chichen Itza. With its crystal-clear waters, lush green surroundings, and rich cultural history.

One of the most striking features of Cenote Ik-Kil is its sheer beauty. The water is a deep blue-green shade, and the cenote is surrounded by lush vegetation, including vines and ferns. The diameter of the cenote is around 60 meters, and the water is a staggering 40 meters deep. You'll be able to see fish swimming around in the clear water, and if you're lucky, you may even spot a turtle or two.

Xenses

At Xenses nothing is what it seems.

Xplor Park

Live up to seven adventures in one day in an environment like no other, surrounded by caverns, underground rivers, jungle and incredible natural settings, much better than any water park in Cancun .

Discover the interior of the Earth either by swimming, walking or rowing a raft down a river of stalactites.
